The West Des Moines Public Library will promote the sharing of ideas, the love of learning and the joy of reading by providing equal access to information and knowledge.

Library Services

CHILDREN

Serving babies through 5th graders, our juvenile collection has board books, easy readers, graphic novels, puppets, puzzles and more. Use a tablet, read an interactive story, or engage in creative play at the Lite Brite wall!

TEEN

Our Young Adult collection is designed for readers in 6th grade and up. Come explore our new Teen Center equipped with private study rooms, reserved teen seating and a dedicated Teen Services librarian.

ADULT

Adults can register for monthly book discussions, computer classes, author visits and more. Summer and Winter Reading Clubs encourage all ages to keep reading year 'round.

HOMEBOUND DELIVERY

Staff and volunteers deliver books to homebound patrons and care facilities in West Des Moines that wish to receive materials on a regular basis. Call 515-222-3400 to request this service.

TRANSPORTATION

WDM Human Services transports seniors and physically challenged citizens from 139 - 6th St. to the library. Schedule a ride from your home (24 hour notice required) at 515-222-3600.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Deliver books to the homebound or assist with special projects! Pick up an application at the Checkout and Accounts desk or visit wdmlibrary.com/volunteer.

Become a Friend of the Library

WHY SHOULD I BECOME A FRIEND?

Public funding alone cannot provide all the books, materials, furnishings, programs, virtual library/ media services and meeting rooms - all benefits currently enjoyed by users and visitors to the West Des Moines Library. Friend membership donations fund the Summer Reading Program, Visiting Author Series, purchase new books, electronic media and technology, assist with infrastructure improvements and much more.

HOW DO I BECOME A FRIEND?

Mail your tax-deductible contribution to WDM Library Friends Foundation, 4000 Mills Civic Parkway, West Des Moines, IA 50265 or join online at wdmlibrary.org/friends.

Explore Des Moines with Adventure Pass

Iowa Libraries provide free passes to area attractions for a day of family fun! Passes allow entrance for two (2) adults and two (2) children.

- For WDM Library: WDM residents, 18 years of age and older, with a valid library card that is non-expired and in good standing may reserve passes by using TixKeeper.
- Cardholder must present a valid photo ID and printed pass (email on phone not accepted) before admission into the venue is allowed.
- One pass per venue may be reserved once every 365 days.
- Passes cannot be used for any other special member events (e.g. Zoo Brew or Night Eyes)
- Please cancel your reservation if you cannot use the pass at the reserved time. To cancel a reservation, call the Reference Desk at 515-222-3403.

Visit wdmlibrary.org/advpass for more information.
